

THE REIVERS

"He Will Settle It"

by John Croslin, from the album End of the Day

Transcribed by Rob Caldwell

In standard tuning.

Strum pattern shouldn't be too hard to figure out and stays basically the same throughout the song.

Chords used-

D: 0 0 0 2 3 2

C9: 0 3 2 0 3 0 (this may actually be called Cadd2)

Em: 0 2 2 0 0 0

C: 0 3 2 0 1 0

Am7: 0 0 2 0 1 0

Song-

D C9 D
D C9 D

D C9 D
I see him in everything you do
D C9 D
And I try for what he wants me to
D C9 D
And I'm sad and I don't understand
D C9 D
I drink beer and I hold your hand

Em C D
But I know he will settle it
Em C D
But I know he will settle it
Em C D
But I know he will settle it
Am7 D
Am7 D

D C9 D
Now I've read of feats greater than mine
D C9 D
And I've danced this sorry silly rhyme
D C9 D
Well we smoked, we laughed until we choked
D C9 D
And I laughed when my spirit broke

Em C D
But I know he will settle it
Em C D
But I know he will settle it
Em C D

But I know he will settle it
Am7 D
He will settle it
Am7 D

C9 Em C D
Outside laughing all the way to the bank
C D
We try and make our way
C9 Em C D
But they say no no not this time
C9 D
You've got more dues to pay
Am7 D
He will settle it

D C9 D
Drunken night, you asked me if I knew
D C9 D
'Bout the story that we've all been through
D C9 D
We could live if I could write it down
D C9 D
But I can't, we're stuck here on the ground

Em C D
But I know he will settle it
Em C D
But I know he will settle it
Em C D
But I know he will settle it
Am7 D
He will settle it
Am7 D