

The Reivers
"Once In A While" (from "Saturday")
John Croslin
Transcribed by Rafael Rodriguez
[*Addition/correction at bottom submitted by Brian Poe]

Chords used:

E A D G B E
D 0 0 0 2 3 2
C 0 3 2 0 1 0
G 3 2 0 0 0 3

Intro:

D C G D C G

D C
There were palisades there where I drew

D C
Such a pretty picture of your hand

D C G
It's so easy now to misconstrue

What I try and understand.

D C
And when we made love it made perfume

D C G
All along the walls they'd write it

D C G
Such a picture now they draw of me

Such a clumsy hairy man

Chorus:

D C G D
For you I remember all you do

C G D

And it's most peculiar too

 C G
It's just confusion

D C
There were shades of green and deja vu

D C
On the willows there we planned it

D C G
Such a day rememberin' all you do

In that tryst of underhand, .

D C
And when we made love I searched for you

D C
In a way the waters parted

D C G
In a fleeting moment dreams come true

To a plain confused man.

*Addition/correction by Brian Poe:

Chords used; There are actually four discrete chords...

E A D G B E

D x 0 0 2 3 2

C/D x 3 2 0 3 0 i don't know what this chord is!

E/D x 2 2 0 3 0 ditto!

G 3 2 0 0 3 3 another variant of an open G

Note that the D note on the 2nd string remains at all times.
These are the same chords used in Ragamuffin Man.
