

Saturday (The Reivers)
Written by John Croslin

Transcribed by Malcolm Smith

[Verse]

Riff | D | F#m | D | F#m
          D      F#m                  D          F#m          D
You look up                  toward the closet
          F#m                          D                  F#m
And something's waiting there
                  G                  A                          Bm                  A
Here in my boutonniere I see you and it seems like from afar

[1st Chorus]

| D | F#m | D | F#m
          G          Bm      Em
It's a way-ay-ay-ay-ay
                  G      Bm      Em
And it's only Saturday
G      Bm      Em
Only Saturday

[Verse]

Riff | D | F#m | D | F#m
          D      F#m                  D          F#m          D
You can hear                  in your head
          F#m                          D                  F#m
just what they'll probably say
                  G          A                          Bm                  A
It was your lady-day amazing and the prettiest of all

[Repeat 1st Chorus]

[2nd Chorus]

Riff | D | F#m | D | F#m
          G          Bm                  Em
And the wind                  And the street light
          G                  Bm                  Em
They will dress you                  Like I told you
          G          Bm                  Em
And they'll be here soon but you look so nice
          G          Bm          Em
You can hear it in your head.

[Verse]

Riff | D | F#m | D | F#m
          D    F#m                   D           F#m           D
I lay you down                   ever so softly
          F#m                   D           F#m
And sometimes shed a tear
                  G                                   A
But they will be here soon and you look so nice
          Bm                    A
You can hear it in your head.

[Repeat 1st Chorus]

[Repeat 2nd Chorus]
